Dear Mrs. England:

I wonder if you have written to the Washington Carnegie Public Library, 300 Main St., Washington, Ind.? Since Washington is the County seat of Daviess County, early records should be available at the County Clerk's office. Except for a couple of county histories, we have little on Daviess County.

The State Library in Indianapolis has an excellent genealogy division, and the address is 140 No. Senate Ave., 46204. The Fort Wayne Public Library has also one of the best genealogy collections in this part of the country, and you might write to them. I am sorry not to be able to help you further.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern,

2 December 1975

My great, great grandfather Chester Camp moved with his wife, Nancy and their five children from Ohio to Reeves Twp., Daviess Co. in about 1846. His occupation was a farmer. He remained there at least through the 1880 census. He was born about 1819, but I do not know where ~~to~~ or when he died. His wife was in the 1870 census but not in the 1880 census, so she might have died ~~there~~ during that period. I am from their son, John R., born 21 June 1841, and Sairilda Meyers (Myers).

I have been unsuccessful so far in obtaining information in addition to what was given above for Chester Camp. If it would be possible, I would like to be sent other information that might be available pertaining to the activities of Chester and his family. Please let me know what the cost would be. If you do not have record of him, could you advise me on where to look?

Thank you for your time,

Mrs. Suzanne Camp England
